About me I always have a mathematical approach to engineering problems and I like to see how abstract maths takes shape in real systems. I like to find relationships among apparently far topics and to observe the same problem under several points of view.
I love music, cinema and art. I like nature, therefore I practice sports like ski, jogging, mountain biking and sea swimming. In the past I have practiced several team sports like football, basket, volley, handball. I love to travel and meet new people.
